

AGLOW GENERATIONS

HOW TO GET INVOLVED: GUIDELINES FOR AGLOW GENERATIONS

Aglow Generations is an integral part of Aglow International and the focus is for the younger generation of ages forty and under. Our heart is for the young generation to be raised up in Aglow, and be part of the mobilizing millions around the world into champions in the Kingdom. Aglow has done this for over 57 years with prayer, evangelism and relationship as the foundation of the ministry.

We need the wisdom of the older and the zeal of the younger.

There is a place for the young generation in the Aglow ministry. We welcome you to the Aglow ministry and are excited for you to be part of the family! The following guidelines list the ways you can become involved in Aglow and then focus on how to start a Generations Group.

Young people are invited to become part of their local Aglow fellowship, to be trained in leadership skills or form an Aglow Generations group. The identity and mission of our Generations shared below.

AGLOW GENERATIONS IDENTITY STATEMENT

1 Timothy 6:14 "You have been raised on the Message of faith and have followed sound teaching. Now pass on this counsel to other followers of Jesus...and don't let anyone put you down because you're young. Teach believers with your life: by word, by demeanor, by love, by faith, by integrity...and that special gift of ministry you were given when the leaders of the church laid hands on you and prayed- keep that dusted off and in use!"

Aglow Generations' identity statement, is to support, equip, engage, and empower young adults to grow as disciples in Christ furthering the work of Aglow in the world. We seek to build relationships across generational lines, encounter life with God through scripture, prayer, and worship; to experience supernatural life through the Holy Spirit. Aglow Generations encourages engagement in community with an aim to learn from the generations that came before us and equip the generations after us to impact the world for His Kingdom.

AGLOW GENERATIONS GROUP PURPOSE

Hebrews 10:24-25 “And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another—and all the more as you see the Day approaching.”

STRUCTURE OF A GENERATIONS GROUP

- » Weekly, biweekly, monthly, or bi-monthly meetings can be held to fulfil the general objectives of the Generations Groups.
- » These meetings can take place in a variety of places, based upon the goal of your group. For example; if your stated goal is “We would like to reach College Students,” the best place in that case would be to meet on campus somewhere.
- » These meetings can be creative gatherings. They do not have to be like a church service. We want people to be introduced to Christ through friendship, and for young people to have solid relationships with other Christians. Teaching or an evangelistic bible study are options but ask the Lord for vision, direction, and creativity for how to gather together and reach others.

HOW TO START A GENERATIONS GROUP IN YOUR COMMUNITY

When there is interest in starting a Generations Group in your community; communicate with a Local Fellowship or National Board. All Generations Groups are approved by the National Board. If you do not have contacts for your Aglow National leaders, send a request to JanaeLovern@aglow.org and you will be put in contact with a leader in your nation (or global region). If you have any questions, please contact Aglow International by e-mail. The leaders will then start meeting together and pray, seeking God for a vision for your group, your focus, when to start and where. You can also start meeting with other young people interested in being part of the group and see what interests they have for the focus of the group.

- » A Generations Group is made up of women and/or men, in their forties or under: children, teens, college students, and young adults.
- » Generations Groups start with a leader and/or one to two co-leaders. (You can also have a larger leadership team with more co-leaders if desired). Spiritually mature teens may be Junior Leaders to mixed age Generations groups that have at least 2 adult leaders. Junior Leaders need to have a parent/guardian sign their leadership questionnaire.
- » God has always used the Aglow ministry to introduce women and men to the person of the Holy Spirit and His power, it is important that the leaders are filled with the Holy Spirit with the evidence of speaking in tongues.
- » The responsibilities of the group should be equally divided between each (adult) leader.
- » The leaders of a Generations Group can vary in age. (Ex: A teen can lead a group for teens. An older woman/or man can lead a Generations Group. A Kids Group needs at least one adult leader.)
- » With the increase of Zoom meetings on a global scale, Generations groups may form a "Zoom Group" by following the same procedures as a local "in person" Generations group in these Guidelines. Contact your local or national leadership for more information. Zoom groups are welcome to have participants from more than one nation.
- » Empower members to be active in your group as they start regularly attending.

COMPLETE GENERATIONS AFFILIATION AND LEADERSHIP QUESTIONNAIRE FORMS

- » Each Group must fill out an Affiliation Form and each leader the leadership questionnaire. The forms are given to the National Board and the group is approved by the National Board.
- » The Affiliation forms and Leadership Questionnaires are then sent to the Aglow Headquarters and the group is officially affiliated.
- » The Leadership team is recommended to become members of Aglow International in their nation, as applicable, in the form of Global Partnership.
- » What is a Global Partner? An Aglow Global Partner is a person whose heart has been touched with the vision, and purposes on God's heart that are to be accomplished by Aglow International. Global Partnership represents a commitment to the call God has placed on your life to be a part of the work of Aglow.
- » Because of the day we live in, we believe it is our responsibility in caring for children and teens to seek adult leaders or workers who will provide healthy, safe, and nurturing relationships. Adults who have been convicted of either child sexual or physical abuse must not be allowed to volunteer in any Aglow sponsored activity or program for children or teens. Adult volunteers should make sure that they are never alone with a single child or teen, another adult or child must be present. This is a protection for you.
- » It is important that you unite with other Aglow groups that are in the area and participate in local, national and regional gatherings.

HOW DOES AN AGLOW GENERATIONS GROUP HANDLE ITS FINANCES?

If you open a bank account; you will be responsible to provide a financial statement each year to your Aglow National Leadership.

Please send your tithes to the next level of leadership in your nation, to help further the work of the ministry in your nation. Please refer to your local or national leadership for more information regarding finances.

WHO DOES THE GENERATIONS GROUP RELATE TO FOR LEADERSHIP?

Generations Groups relate to and are accountable to their National Board, National Generations Coordinator (if their country has one), and the Aglow Headquarters International Field and Generations Director, Janae Lovern.

It is very important that you maintain communication with your National Leadership, and the Generations Director at Headquarters, updating them in a timely manner of your activities, successes and any problems you may be experiencing. These relationships will bring you prayer support, mentorship, accountability, and friendships to walk with you through the journey of this leadership position.

If your country does not have a national Aglow leader, you should contact Global Field Office - International directly with any needs or questions. You always have an open door of communication with the Aglow Headquarters Generations Director: JanaeLovern@aglow.org

WHAT IF MY GENERATIONS GROUP IS NO LONGER ACTIVE?

If the Generations leaders feel they can no longer lead their group and there are no other people who want to take on the leadership positions, then you need to communicate with leadership to inform them that the Generations Group is closed. Our hope is that Generation Groups will grow and keep going even when leadership changes. Leaders should look to raise up other leaders in your group that could carry the vision forward.

Young People Participating in Local Groups

We encourage the Aglow local groups to have a mixture of ages involved. God designed for the generations to be together, blessing and encouraging one another.

We encourage leaders to:

- » Invite young adults to: lead worship, do announcements, lead prayer, or testify. Allow young people to use & develop their gifts in your meetings.
- » Make meetings relevant to multiple generations. Invite speakers of different ages.
- » Invite teens & young adults with musical gifts to join worship team.
- » Have creative activities that allow the different ages to work together.
- » Invite young people who want to grow spiritually, need a mentor or a place to belong.

Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will not depart from it.
Proverbs 22:6

Generations Serving on a Local Board

The Local Fellowship Board can appoint a young person to serve as a leader. To do so, the leadership team would need to send a Change of Information Form for the Generations leader.

The value of this is to:

- » Bring a young perspective and voice to the local leadership level
- » Train the young person to serve the local group and be an active leader
- » Bring creativity to multiple generations participating in the local group
- » Help draw young people to be active in local groups
- » Encourage the young people to develop their gifts.

We warmly welcome you into the family of Aglow
